An eastern magazine prints an able article on "How to Leave the Dining-Room." We haven't read it yet, but even a casual glance at it convinces us that in the highest New York circles it is no longer considered good form to be carried out on the dining-room by the butler.

The author of the following advice is not known. The maxims are none the less good, however: "Drink less, breathe more; eat less, chew more; ride less, walk more; clothe less, bathe more; worry less, work more; waste less, give more; write less, read more; preach less, practice more."

China appeals to the East for protection from German aggression. A combination between Russia and China would include more than a third of the earth's inhabitants.

The London, England, Statist, a financial paper, commenting on the possibility of a free silver majority in Congress, says: "In such a case it is almost inevitable that the battle for free silver will have to be fought over again two years later. Looking at the matter at the present moment, it is not surprising that the Democratic revival should unfavorably affect the New York Stock Exchange, and should induce very general fear among investors. We shall witness before long a great uprising of the silverites."

Jas. Barrett arrived yesterday from the Golden Rule district. He states the Golden Rule, now operated by the Golden Queen Mining Co., with Mr. Frank Playter as its efficient superintendent, is working some 20 men and shipping ore constantly. This property is an excellent one and is developing into a handsome producer. Mr. Barrett and Carver & Payle own some claims adjoining this property which are also valuable.

The Southern Pacific railway report contains an interesting computation showing the effect that the decline in rates has had on revenue. In brief, it is found that had the company been able to realize in 1897 the average rates received only four years before, earnings for 1897 would have been $10,632,238 greater than they are.

Sheriff White went to Yuma yesterday on official business. The Sheriff is the busiest man in the county just at present, and the indications are that the entire official force of that office will be rushed as never before during this term of court.

The Hirschfelder treatment for tuberculosis is being given by Dr. Purcell of Tucson. This treatment has met with success in California to a high degree. It bears a close resemblance to the famous Koch remedy. The cases under Dr. Purcell have shown marked improvement in the space of one month, the time which the doctor has had under his charge. This treatment in Arizona will be watched with great interest, for if successful in California the climatic conditions of Arizona ought to make it doubly so.

Here is the kind of an obituary that a Georgian editor puts up for a man: "Poor Jim Brown slung his earthly garments on a limb and swam the river yesterday. He didn't stand back on account of water being cold, but plunged right in, came up smiling and struck out for the other shore, where the angels were waiting for him with a finer suit than he ever wore in his life. Jim was a poor man, but he had his subscription to his home paper paid up and he got there in great shape."

COPPERINGS.

U. S. Inspector Adair is in the city on official business.

Miss Molly Brady and sister, Mrs. Henry Asch, left for a short trip on this morning's train.

The family of A. A. Pesquera arrived in the city this evening from Hermosillo, Mexico.

Ben Stillman, who has been in Santa Cruz and other places in California for the past two months, returned this evening.

Mr. Edward Billings, the advance agent for Bittner's Dramatic Co., left this morning for Tucson, at which place the company will play after their engagement in Bisbee is closed.

Monday evening the Bittner Dramatic Co. produced "Out of Darkness" to a large and appreciative audience. Every seat in the Bisbee Opera House was occupied, and many were compelled to take standing room. Following on Tuesday evening "The Tramp's Daughter" was hailed and applauded by a still larger audience than the night preceding. The house was literally in an uproar from the time the curtain was raised until the conclusion of the play. "The Tramp's Daughter" is a comedy with many delightful and amusing situations. The excellent reputation of the Bittner Theater Company prepared Bisbee for a dramatic treat, but the manner in which the company has produced the above named plays has been a very agreeable surprise to the theater going element here. Everyone of the company is able and finished. Between each act amusing specialties are introduced for the amusement of the audience, and the gentlemen of course have no excuse to go out and "see a friend."

Tonight the thrilling melodrama "Master or Man" will be played. This is a play dealing with the labor question and it is safe to say there will be even a greater attendance tonight than there has heretofore been.

COPPERINGS.

W. C. Green was an incoming passenger this evening.

Mrs. Dr. Sweet and Cousin, Miss Ewing, accompanied by Dr. Greene, returned from Tucson on this evening's train.

Mr. Henry Pyatt, the popular cattleman, is in the city from his ranch on the San Pedro. Mr. Pyatt reports cattle in fine condition, and says he believes the future of the industry is bright.

The Bittner Dramatic Co. produced "Master and Man" last night. The house was crowded, and intense interest was manifested throughout the play. "The Millionaire's Wife" will be played to-night. This is a comedy drama which will prove amusing and interesting.

Between the hours of 9 o'clock last night and 1 o'clock this morning Bisbee was visited by a young hurricane. A number of houses in Brewery Gulch were unroofed. There is a slow, scanty fall of snow now (11 a. m.), but indications point toward a heavy storm in the next twenty-four hours.

During the distribution of this evening's mail the ubiquitous small boy attempted to enjoy himself in his usual loud and boisterous manner, when the Rev. Pritchard emerged from his masses of written matter and proceeded to give to the culprit a good sound spanking. It was good work. Keep your hand in, or on, rather.

During each and every one of the three performances given here by the Bittner Dramatic Co., the peace and quiet enjoyment of the audience have been sadly tampered with, and the nerves of all present woefully set upon edge, by an individual who indulges in the most inordinate applause and ear-splitting shrieks. The peculiar feature of this individual's malady is that he seems possessed of a desire to bray during the most pathetic parts of the performances, when the utmost silence is required of and by the audience, for a proper appreciation of the situation. Ladies sitting in the vicinity of this fellow are compelled to place a finger in each ear during his demonstrations, or leave the theater, and it has been a noticeable fact that a number of them have chosen the latter. We are of the opinion that the management should insist on having but one show under the same roof at the same time.

THE NACOSARI BRANCH

Indications That Work on the Extension Will Soon Begin.

The rumblings of railroad rumors is still heard, and the building of the road from Bisbee to Nacosari being uppermost every move made by the company is regarded as prima facie evidence that the date for the commencement of building is not very distant.

The fact that carload after carload of railroad ties—estimated thus far about 50—and still arriving daily; also some 15 carloads of tie plates and paraphernalia necessary to laying track already received, and room being prepared to receive more material would indicate that business is meant.

It is understood that the company are also to change their rails on the present road and put in heavier ones on account of increased traffic and much of the material now arriving is to be used for that purpose. Should the track from Fairbank to Benson be torn up, as intimated some time since, the material will undoubtedly be put to use in the construction of the road to Nacosari.

But little is being said by the promoters of the enterprise but the fact that the company are financially able to easily carry out the undertaking; having already secured the concessions, right of ways, and surveys, and the additional evidence that construction material is daily arriving it would certainly impress one forcibly that arrangements are at least well under way. We hope to be able to chronicle the commencement of work shortly.

A New Year's Gift Heralded.

The measureless popularity of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has been the growth of more than a third of a century. As in the past, the coming year will be ushered in by the appearance of a fresh Almanac, clearly setting forth the nature, uses and operation of this medicine of world wide fame. It is well worth perusal. Absolute accuracy in the astronomical calculations and calendar will, as before, be valuable characteristics, while the reading matter will include statistics, humor and general information, accompanied by admirably executed illustrations. The Almanac is issued from the publishing department of The Hostetter Company at Pittsburgh, and will be printed on their presses in English, German, French, Welsh, Norwegian, Swedish, Holland, Bohemian and Spanish. All druggists and country dealers furnish it without cost.

That was a bright Tucson Sunday school boy, who, when the superintendent asked if they knew what heaven meant, the youngster shouted out: "It's a place where the streets are all paved with gold and all the houses are gold. I guess it is a regular Klondyke."

A dispatch from Phoenix says, J. N. Flemer, editor of the Arizona Democrat, was arrested today on a grand jury warrant charging him with criminal libel. The matter alleged libellous was in reference to Gov. McCord and charged him with unbecoming actions during the late visit to Los Angeles.

According to the Globe Belt, E. F. Crawford was convicted of manslaughter at Globe last week for killing Dominick Banche, formerly of Tombstone and well known in our county. Banche was killed in June last, an account of which was published in the Prospector, and will be remembered by our readers. The jury brought in a verdict of manslaughter after being out twenty hours, and recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the court.

P. Z. Daly, of Massachusetts, aged 22 years, fell from a bracketeam of a Southern Pacific freight train, on which he was stealing a ride, at Tucson, last Wednesday afternoon, says the Yuma Sun, and was crushed beneath the wheels of the moving cars. He lived forty minutes after the accident and spoke intelligently and calmly of the details of the occurrence and his identity.

The United Verde is shipping about three million pounds of copper bullion every month.

H. G. Howe was an incoming passenger today from Bisbee on a visit to his family.

Miss Nellie Hughes the popular young lady of Bisbee is in Tombstone on a visit to her sister Mrs. Joe McPherson.

Jas. Fourr is seriously ill with a bad case of pneumonia. The Prospector with his many friends hope for his speedy recovery.

The University of Arizona has found it necessary to erect a new laboratory to meet the demand for that institution's 50 cent assays.

D. A. Adams the well known Dragage cattleman was in town today. He arrived just in time to be subpoenaed as a juror for next Monday.

The Congress Gold company has recently put in a new and very complete hoisting machinery at the central and largest of three shafts in the mine.

Amended articles of the Santa Fe and Grand Canyon Railroad company, increasing the stock of the company from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000, were filed in the office of the Territorial Secretary at Phoenix.

A marriage license was granted to L. N. Barns to wed Bessie Kincaid today by Probate Judge Bradley. Both parties are of Wilcox.

A. W. Howe arrived yesterday from Bisbee. It is understood Al will again enter the journalistic destinies of the Bisbee Lyre, and it is said will assume charge shortly.

The Sonora Railway Co. transported during the quarter ending Sept. 30th 23,467 passengers and handled 10,609 tons of freight. The road is doing good business.

Fifty convicts are now employed on the State of Arizona Improvement company's canal at Yuma, and in a few days the force will be increased to twice that number.

The largest pay roll in Arizona is that of the Copper Queen company at Bisbee. It contains over 1,100 names, at least $100,000 being paid out monthly in wages.

The Tucson Board of Trade has appointed a committee to consider the matter of holding a carnival or fiesta there the coming season, both Los Angeles and Phoenix having given up the idea.

There is still a scarcity of wood in town. When a load is brought in by the wood haulers it is eagerly sought after. Winter is about on us, and it behooves everybody to lay in their supply.

Last night the weather was very disagreeable the wind blowing a cyclone, and everything laying about loose was carried Fairbank ward. This morning it was also quite chilly making warmer clothing comfortable.

During the first week in November 4,471 Mexican cattle were admitted at El Paso, and since that time 900 more have been admitted at the same point. At Nogales up to the 17th 2,586 head had been inspected and admitted.

Alex. Smith came in today from Pearce. He states that the work on the drift of the Six Mile Hill property to tap the rich store of ore discovered on the surface is being pushed ahead with vigor. It is expected the body of ore will be found within this week.

Prices for range cattle during the shipping season now closed have ruled twenty five to seventy-five cents higher than a year ago, in spite of the fact that the quality has averaged below the standard of recent years. The best cattle have come from McManis.

AN OBSTINATE BURRO

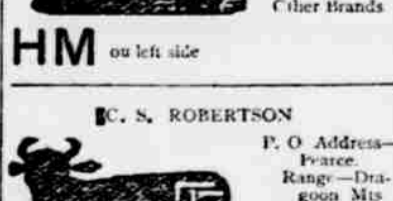

Refused to Go Till Addressed in Familiar Language.

An amusing incident occurred today on Allen street. A prospector with a burro was sauntering down the street this morning when suddenly the burro stopped in front of an imaginary chasm of water and refused to budge. He could not be induced to move for love or money. Whip, spur or club had no effect. The prospector dismounted, and for ten minutes every strategy tried proved ineffective. It looked like an all day job. By this time quite a crowd had gathered. The prospector was getting mad; his looks were indicative of a threatened disaster. He turned to the sympathizing spectators and began swearing with such vehemence and force that everybody in the vicinity was moved except the burro. He then turned to the burro, and changing his tactics, began swearing in Mexican, the blasphemous utterances embracing the object of his wrath and extending to remote generations. The sun was so shocked that old Sol slid behind a cloud, and with him disappeared the glistering sparkle of the water reflected from his rays, which the obstinate burro had shunned. As soon as this was removed his burros-ship went across without any trouble. The prospector in remounting smiled at the effectiveness of his comprehensive profanity, and said as he rode away: "I thought the last cursing would bring him to time."

Mr. Jas. Appel, Jr. is in the city on a short visit. Mr. Appel is a son of Millionaire Appel of Milwaukee and is in this section of Arizona to look after the mining interests of his father who owns some valuable claims in the Harshaw district, and also in this county. Mr. Appel informs the Prospector that he intends doing considerable development work on his mines here within the next three months and perhaps continue operations on a large scale should conditions warrant. This is his first visit to Arizona and is much impressed with our mineral resources and opportunities.

Jas. Marra, Sam Watt, Geo. Rafferty and Dr. Hall, the hunting party who were out three days in the jungles hunting for tigers and lions, returned last evening. It is reported they brought back one rabbit, and there is a suspicion that it was a domesticated pet belonging to some rancher. If they brought any game the Prospector does not know it, for we did not receive any.

SOCIETY WOMEN USE IT

Mrs. Kester Haines, Prominent New York Hostess, Relieved of Insomnia by Paine's Celery Compound.

There exists among women who are much in society a form of weariness resulting from overtaxed nerves, more intense and depressing than any known to tired muscles.

The overcrowded lives of such women make them slaves of anxieties and annoyances which they cannot ignore.

The following letter from one of New York's busiest hostesses shows how implicitly Paine's celery compound is relied on among the most intelligent, well-to-do families as well as the many more humble households all over the country.

New York City, Oct. 9, 1897. Gentlemen—I think it but fair to you that I bear testimony to the beneficial results of my use of Paine's celery compound.

Two years ago I was almost a wreck from nervous prostration, resulting from overwork mental and physical. I had lost my memory completely, and friends feared I would never recover. After trying several remedies to no avail, my physician prescribed Paine's celery compound, and within a few days there was a decided improvement in my condition.

After the use of three bottles I was so much better that it was unnecessary for me to continue its use. Since then I have recommended it widely, and have yet to hear that it has failed to do all that I claim for it.
